From the Pastor

I am thankful for sunny but crisp fall afternoons, when there is so little moisture in the air that the solid blue sky looks close enough to touch with your hand. The sky is the perfect backdrop for the brightly colored leaves. We haven't had enough days like that this fall, but today is one.

I am thankful for the family that raised me and taught me to value learning and to acknowledge the work of God in my life. I am thankful for a wife who shares that love for learning, and that bedrock faith. She is abundantly gifted and expresses her appreciation for beauty and the beautiful things that God has shared with us in such a variety of ways. She lovingly wraps her boys, as she calls us, in warmth and makes the dull lives that we would fall into without her, sparkle with life and hope.

I am thankful that I have had the privilege of being a part of the lives of my two boys. It has been a wondrous and grace-filled experience to be a partner with Lillian and with God in shaping them into the young men that they are.

I am thankful for this congregation. For the way that we continue to witness God's abundant and astonishing grace as we engage in the ministry to which God is calling us. Every time we have responded to a call to ministry, we discovered a more challenging, more exciting call contained in the original commission. It's like opening a box within a box within a box and each box contains gifts that are more precious and rare than the gifts contained in the previous box. What an adventure.

I am thankful for the privilege of living in a nation where, power passes from administration to administration without bloodshed. It is a blessing to be able to resolve conflict by means of persuasion and compromise rather than weapons. In times of transition, I am thankful, whether my candidate wins or loses, to be counting ballots rather than bodies. I am thankful that I am free to express my opinion, to meet with others who share my views and that I am free to worship and to express my thanks to God for all of the blessings that I have been given. I am thankful for those who make daily sacrifices so that these freedoms will endure.

There is so much to be thankful for that we need more than one day to express thanks. Let Thanksgiving Day remind you that every day is a day to give thanks.

Fall/Winter Thursday Evening Groups

Beginning October 8th at 6:30 PM there will be two groups meeting each week until 7:15 PM. One group will be meeting to plan and prepare for the second annual “Night In Bethlehem”. “Night In Bethlehem” is a community outreach night where we will reenact the town of Bethlehem at the time of Christ’s birth. There will be opportunities for families to come and make crafts, prepare and eat food, visit with a Jewish family, and of course see Mary, Joseph, and the baby Jesus. Any one interested in participating is welcome. Help is still needed in many areas!

The second Thursday Night group will be working on a Christmas Drama to be presented to the congregation in December. The drama “Open Hearts in Bethlehem” was written by Kenneth Bailey, a renowned biblical scholar and is his perception of the birth of Jesus based on 40 years of living in the Middle East. All ages are invited to participate in this drama. Not only will we need actors, but we will need assistance with staging, sound, and costuming.

Please note the Christmas Drama Group will be meeting on November 3rd at 6:30 and Tuesday November 24th at 6:30, instead of Thursday the 5th and Thursday the 26th.
